

FANIMECON

By Fans, For Fans

2013 Pocket Guide ₁

Welcome to FanimeCon 2013! This little book that you have in your hands contains a lot of the schedule for our programming. We invite you to look at our online schedule website (<http://m.fanime.com>) as some events may be changed after this goes to print – we'll try not to change too many things, but sometimes things just happen.

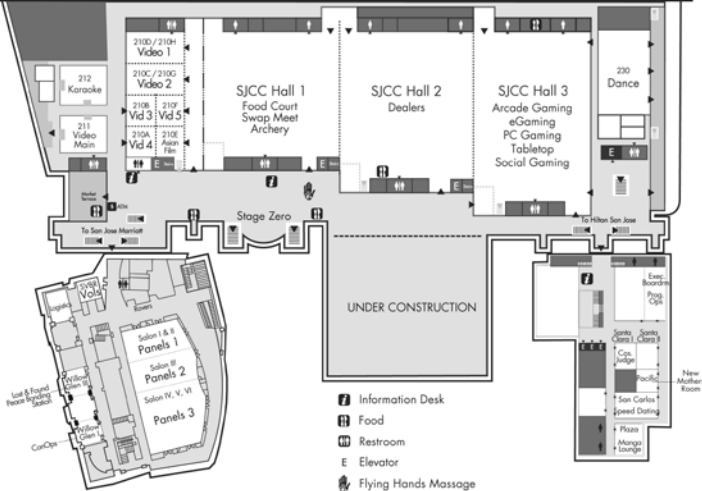

If you want to know more about some programming, feel free to ask a staffer at one of our four Info Desks or tweet us @FanimeCon.

FanimeCon Tips!

- The “tip bubbles” are back. They contain helpful and useful information.
- Keep an eye on them as they sometimes contain information that doesn't appear in the schedule grid.

FanimeCon Tips!

FanimeCon is on Twitter (@FanimeCon)

Follow us to get updates during con, throughout the year, and participate in contests for fun prizes!

Utilize the Info Desk

Our Info Desks are here to help you if you are lost or need help finding an event.

Text a Rover for Assistance

Text message a rover by sending a message to 1.415.FANIME1 (1.415.326.4631). They are here to help!

Shuttle Service

If you're staying at a FanimeCon hotel that's not within walking distance, use the FanimeCon shuttles to get to and fro! (shuttle schedule on Page 19).

Food is Good!

Hungry? There's food on the SJCC concourse and all around FanimeCon. There's dessert or burritos or steak, or ask your hotel concierge for a suggestion.

Get Some Sleep

Yes, we do have programming available 24/7. NO, it is not a challenge to stay up all night. Get some sleep and be well rested – you'll enjoy everything better too!
